

MISSION STATEMENT

It is my goal as a facilitator to design lessons that will promote creativity and challenge my students to become stronger problems solvers and more effective communicators.

Also, to ensure that every student develops a positive self-image and reaches his/her highest potential, I will work in partnership with each student's parent to keep them informed and involved in the learning process.

I will try to make this a fun year of learning and new friendships!

